

“Be the change you want to see in society” Gandhi

We believe that the pursuit of wealth and the search for fairness are by no means incompatible. Quite on the contrary, we urge that startling strength may come to an idea precisely from being just.

That is why GIUSTIEVENTI was created: to conceive, organize and optimize on all sides events of promotion and communication within a new culture of responsibility towards society and the environment and to provide our clients with a network of suppliers that fulfil high demands of sustainability, solidarity and fairness – in the belief that any aspect of an event, from the concept to the location up to catering and printed materials, can express the spirit and values of a firm. The role of GIUSTIEVENTI is to let client and suppliers meet while vouching for shared ethical and environmental commitments.

We aim at prompting a novel way to organize events, happening, conferences and promotion activities, so that firms opting for an ethical profile can effectively communicate their choice. Any sort of event can be “naturally realized” with particular attention for its social and environmental implications. The originality of our proposals arises from sustainable creativity, a style of work in which fair action meets high levels of quality.

GIUSTIEVENTI: The new way of conceiving, organizing and realizing events.

In the PRESS section at www.giustieventi.it you'll be able to read the Charter of Ethics, written in collaboration with Altreconomia and subscribed to by all our suppliers and partners.

The Charter of Ethics implies commitment towards high ethical standards, general norms concerning the impact of one's activity on society and the environment as well as transparency rules for budgeting and pricing.

GIUSTIEVENTI organizes advertising and opening events as well as artistic and cultural happenings and company conventions, workshops and conferences. Proposed solutions, while always meeting the demand for sustainability, also prove fresh and creative.

Our suggestions for selected food products, eco offset printing processes, location and set up, efficient transportation and innovative materials are highly competitive as compared to more traditional techniques and long established options.

GIUSTIEVENTI also provides consulting services as well as direct support for programs of emission reduction or compensation.

GIUSTIEVENTI addresses all recipients with an interest in enhancing the ethical profile of their activity and to communicate through initiatives that are "naturally realized".

GIUSTIEVENTI supports companies in their choices and helps them to convey their value through concrete acts combining values with high quality and efficiency.

All this makes our offer unique and allows sustainable management of the whole organization of events: from conception to completion.
